

“20-20 Voice” Cancer

supporting those who suffer from Head & Neck cancers

What would YOU do without YOUR voice?

How would YOU cope?

The works raffle has always been a great way to raise charity funds and I'll bet that where you work it is no different! Whether it be an office or factory floor the 'works raffle' is a simple way to combine everyone there to help “20-20 Voice” Cancer raise the vital funds it needs to return speech (VOICE) to those who have lost courtesy of cancer.

Do you know someone who has suffered from any form of Head/Neck/Throat cancer? Do you think about how they now communicate? Can you run a simple works raffle and help them? At £1 per strip it should be easy to sell plenty of tickets and a monthly raffle can cause a bit of competition as to who wins next!

Why not register with us, enjoy the company and help little known Head & Neck cancer sufferers survive cancer – in time they will be keeping their voices too! Local businesses will help you out with prizes and always remember this:

YOUR help is invaluable.

This i-pad will enable someone to communicate again – how wonderful is that?
