Excellent start to the month as we collected £26.43 from our, P/Office tub and in return, gave them a fresh tub & an updated certificate (£388.29) – aren't they doing well folks! Because of this lockdown this is the only tub in action sadly.

Hammer blow folks! Hacker Des Places is fine and is walking. However, a scan has revealed that there is a small lesion on the edge of the tendon, which he cut into when racing at Wetherby. The lesion is not as serious as the more typical 'core' lesions which appear in the middle of the tendon. However, it means that he won't be able to run this season, and he will require more time off before he can return to training. These things take time to heal properly folks. But, we had a 2nd & winner to gloat over 😊.

The stable has been kind enough to send me an updated video of our boy! 😊

And next we do have some good news as we have been invited to take part in "Leicester's Big Weekend" over at Market Harbo-rough The event is a Sat/Sun affair, 14th/15th August. Plenty of things on display including 2020 Voice Cancer.org: We have decided to run a Giant Tombola over the 2 days and we will have plenty of info available regarding throat cancers.

You can find out more details here:

Providing we avoid rain & lockdowns it should be a great event for us to show what we do – and also raise funds through our Giant Tombola.

I think we all need a good night out to blow out the cobwebs of boredom!

Due to this continuing, ludicrous, lockdown situation we have asked if we can move the date of our 'Spring Meal Night' at the superb Cuisine of India to late May. Hopefully 'AK' will find a spot for us as Boris opens up the country once again! I will update you all just as soon as I get confirmation from our friends at the restaurant. 😊

Obviously there has not been a great deal to rabbit about this month but it looks like things will start warming up again on the charity front. We have a 'one-off' Motown Night planned for one fine summer evening and we will be receiving the invaluable assistance of Carling/Everards/Semble in all sorts of ways. They have already donated £300 to the cause so this is a great start to our bonanza fundraising evening.

We are planning on a full scale disco, drinks bar (of course 😊), finger buffet, and of course we will be having one of our 7-Tier Raffles for all to have a crack at. We are looking for a sizeable venue that can provide what we need for the evening and tickets will be available just as soon as we can get things in place 😊. WATCH THIS SPACE FOLKS!

It's the end of the month and therefore the end of our intrepid foot-sloggers 'Mile-a-Day' run to raise funds for this charity. There was no solicitation from moi I promise you. Sarah simply came up with the idea, asked me, and I OK'd it.....totally. What a marvellous way to raise funds, raise interest and have our T-shirts out for all to see. Now what they have raised in total I do not know but Sarah has already advised around the £450 mark, with more to come, and will have a total pretty soon folks! I'll keep you posted 😊

Chins up, spring is almost here again, lockdown is easing so keep smiling folks.
