It looks like the holiday season is finally opening up folks, so make the most of the good times whilst they are here! You never know when the next lockdown is coming!

Great news as Hacker Des Place is now back in light training, so we have renewed our syndicate involvement out for only £27, let's see if our supporters can have some more fun during the winter shall we? 😊

Great news from our 'Friends in the North' as we now have 18 entrants in the Manchester Inflatable FunRun and our little "Angel of the North" thinks that she may well get more signed up for this hilarious event! It's all 'grist to the mill' folks and it all helps this charity to blossom & help new lary's coming down the line!

May 15th was a proud, proud day for this writer! 1961 I cried when Leicester lost at Wembley, 1963 I cried again, but in 1969 I only nearly cried as I was 18 then! Yesterday saw this 70yr old fool cry tears of pure joy as that final whistle blew and this city erupted in pure, unmitigated joy after Youri Tielemans rocket to the top corner of the net had set the game alight in the 63rd minute. Chelsea bought Kante, they bought Chilwell but they couldn't buy the FA Cup! What a proud, proud day for this writer!

Back to normality and we find things going extremely well in Manchester as our little 'Angel of the North' now has ~~20~~32 entrants in the Manchester FunRun. Tamara has certainly 'dusted off the gloves' to get this event going for us and a 'Team Bus' has been ordered for the day to travel to Altrincham for the FunRun. Furthermore, we have had good offers to display our vehicle magnetics (which are proven harmless to any vehicles by the way) so we are having some more made to send up to the area asap. We cannot match the exorbitant advertising power of the big boys but this gets us around & noticed a bit! 😊 I think we will have to get some little A4/A3 posters, proclaiming 20-20 Voice Cancer for the coach windows on the 4th of September! 😊 I've just picked them up (A3's) so that I can send them up to Tamara – they are superb! Our local printers TFG Copyshop & Leicester Digital Print never let me down with tricky stuff like this! 😊. 35 entries now!

Well, well, well folks, pubs open and we get a tub full of coins presented to us, which totalled £15:46p. Well done Hogarths in Leicester City centre, a good start to the situation! 😊. By the way folks, if you have any spare euros laying about, chuck them in one of our tubs if you please for every time we accrue 100.....we bank them! 😊

Our belated Spring Meal Night went ahead on the 24th May despite Covid, flu-bugs, hailstorms over the city, people forgetting the date & people simply not used to going out again! We were only 22 in number but it was a great night and we welcomed our supporting accountants (SGL) to the delights of our meal nights. We also gained a new member to the team.....a giant pot (savings) pig who was immediately named "FattyPoomba" – he's fatter than me & he'll take some filling up I can tell you! Thanks-we just need to find him a sty to dwell in! 😊. We also changed our tub over at the Cuisine of India, which realised £37.26 to go with the £220 raised on the night. Well done all and thank you once again as we now look forward to our BIG night at the Chef & Spice on thanks of course, go to 'AK' and his team for providing such scrumptious food and table service extra-ordinaire – well done lads (& young lady with notepad 😊). It was well worth waiting for! So there we go, another month gone & hopefully the back-end of this flu bug & its multi-national variants so that we can get back to a semblance of normality!
